

BFS – Budgeting and Forecasting System

BFS caters to budgeting, forecasting, and performance measurement needs of a financial institution. BFS provides a host of features and enable users to compare actual data with budgeted data.

Goals of BFS are to prepare budgets and plan benchmarks, measure actual performance against benchmarks, forecast costs and revenues and produce reports to support decision making.

It can seamlessly interface between any backend system to access actual and statistical forecasts for GL items.

